Dear Ms. Osborn:

As you know, we wrote on July 7, 2014, with specific question about Thomson's document production and its completeness. We have not yet received any response. Please respond to the questions that we asked in that letter.

Moreover, it has come to our attention that none of the productions we have received to this point contain any metadata (including custodian information), contrary to the discovery order in this case. We would be grateful for your explanation as to why this is.

From the limited information that we have, it appears that the entire production comprises portions of the submission that Thomson Consumer made to the United States Department of Justice, but we are not certain of this, nor are we certain that we have received the entirety of what was provided to the Department of Justice. We, of course, requested the entirety of that production, but also a great deal more from Thomson Consumer and Thomson SA, and we need to understand what responsive documents we have been provided, what responsive documents will be forthcoming, and what responsive documents are being withheld.

Please respond to our letters in writing by Tuesday, July 15, or provide us times that day when you can meet and confer to discuss Thomson's outstanding responses to our discovery requests.

Best regards,

/s/ Craig A. Benson
